

A Civil War Campaign History of the Union XII Corps, July to September 1862, began with the formation of this often-luckless command as the II Corps in Major General John Pope's Army of Virginia on June 26, 1862. Bryan explains in meticulous detail how the corps endured a bloody and demoralizing loss.

About our Speaker:

Chris Bryan is a native of Franklin County, Pennsylvania. After graduating from the United States Naval Academy with a B.S. in History, he served as a naval aviator for eight years. He has since worked as a project manager. During that time, he earned an M.A. in Liberal Arts from St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland, and a Masters in Historic Preservation from the University of Maryland, College Park, where his studies focused on architectural investigations of antebellum domestic and agricultural outbuildings in the Chesapeake Bay region. He has remained active with historic preservation and architectural investigations following graduation. Chris Bryan lives in Southern Maryland with his wife and two children.