

Mary Turk-Meena – Walk Along Hancock Avenue

A virtual stroll down Hancock Avenue from the Pennsylvania Monument to the High Water Mark and the Angle, this program visits (virtually) the monuments along this stretch of Hallowed Ground and explores the stories behind the monuments as well as the stories of some of the soldiers who courageously fought to defend the Union on the afternoons of July 2 and July 3.

About our Speaker:

Licensed Battlefield Guide Mary Turk-Meena is a retired attorney. She specialized in employer-sponsored Mary Turk-Meena is a retired attorney and has been a Licensed Battlefield Guide at Gettysburg National Military Park since 2016. She practiced law for 35 years focusing on employer-sponsored employee benefit plans – retirement, health care and executive compensation – largely for Fortune 100 companies headquartered in the United States, Europe and Asia. Mary was recognized by colleagues and clients in the publication Best Lawyers in America.

Mary received her undergraduate degree in music performance from Baldwin-Wallace College Conservatory of Music and her law degree from Temple University.

During the winter, Mary returns to her home in Charlotte, NC or travels with her perpetually on-the-road-opera-conductor husband. Mary has two adult daughters, one in London and the other in Charlotte.
